Spring 2003

Serving Oak Park, Downtown and Chicago's South and West Sides

www.transitchicago.com

To better serve you, the Green Line underwent a major renovation which was completed in 1996. This $406 million project modernized all of the stations. In addition, 75% of the stations were made accessible to customers with disabilities. As a result, the Green Line now provides faster, smoother, more reliable transit service.

Experience Chicago.

Go Green.

DuSable Museum of African-American History

The Green Line has been serving Oak Park, Downtown and Chicago’s South and West side communities for over 100 years. Don’t miss the opportunity to ride the Green Line to explore our city’s rich heritage, diverse neighborhoods and amazing cultural institutions and community attractions.
